Letter to Parents

Dear Anchor Family,

Things are shaping up wonderfully for our Silver Celebration 25th Annual School Auction, Saturday night. We'll gather right here at Anchor Lutheran for this event on Saturday, starting at 5 p.m. With the theme of "Silver Celebration," and the Silver Screen, please free to have fun dressing in a manner to match the theme, but know that you are also perfectly welcome dressed however you like. The Auction will have Silent Auction tables, delicious food, entertainment from our Junior High students and a fun Live Auction. A few special activities will add to the fun throughout the evening. If you don't yet have your tickets, they are still available in the school office, $50 per person, and they may be charged to your school account. We hope to see you with us for this great event.

In Christ,

Mrs. Dean & Ms. Chandler

PARENTING TIP OF THE WEEK

Try these quick tips for boosting your adolescent's self-esteem and letting them know you're on their side, no matter what.

- ▶ Build trust: give frequent chances to be trusted, treat your child like an honest person, and follow through on your own promises as a parent.
- ▶ Teach them how to accept failure: let kids talk about their frustrations when things go wrong, give them constructive advice for improvement ("Try throwing the ball like this," not "You're never going to make the team") and explain the opportunity to learn and try again.
- ▶ Strengthen relationships: by caring about and for family members, friends and neighbors, you can teach your child to be proud of belonging to these networks.
- ▶ Encourage talents and interests: put a recent piece of artwork on the wall or fridge, or ask about new music choices. You're showing your child that you value her individuality.
