Letter to Parents

Dear Anchor Family,

We are excited for our upcoming School Auction on Saturday, November 4th. In preparation for this wonderful event there is a lot of work to be done. Be on the lookout for how you may participate in the School Auction. It's just under two months from the event. We will have a meeting on Wednesday, September 13th. This meeting will introduce the event to new families and new helpers as well as planning aspects of the event. You can talk with Ms. Chandler and Tammy Kellard if you have questions about how you can help. You'll continue to see signs for Auction Meetings. We encourage you to attend and jump in and get involved.

Beautiful Savior Lutheran Church (BSLC) is restarting its regular Sunday education hour offerings this Sunday. In case you didn't realize it, BSLC shares the Lutheran Center facility with Anchor Lutheran. If you don't regularly worship elsewhere, we'd invite you to join Beautiful Savior this weekend. Two worship styles are offered, a traditional style at 8:30 a.m. and a contemporary band-led service at 10:30 a.m. Education hour runs from 9:45 a.m.-10:15 a.m., with a Connect Meal follows the service at 11:30 a.m. Connect Time will be starting soon, which is Sunday School of all ages. If you have any questions about joining us at Beautiful Savior, let us know.

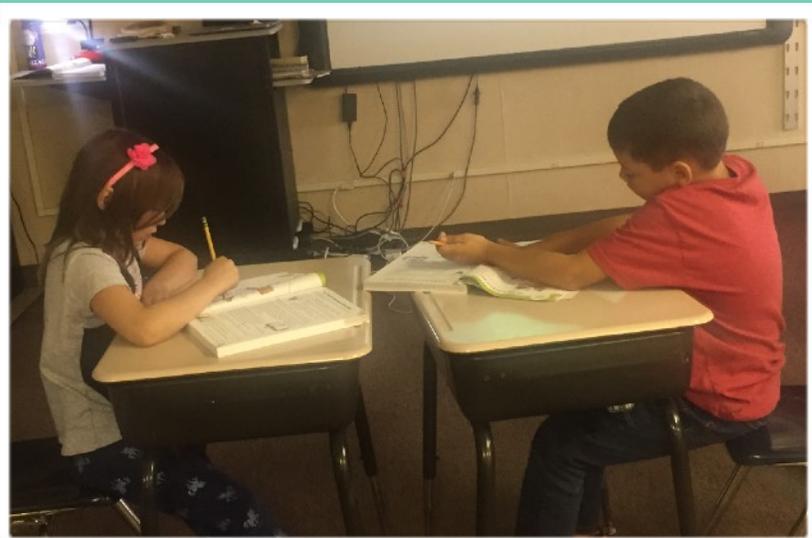

In Christ,
Mrs. Dean & Ms. Chandler

PARENTING TIP OF THE WEEK

The Parent-Teacher Relationship

It is important for parents to get to know their children's teachers, creating an open line of communication between the parent and school throughout the school year. Getting to know your child's teacher is an important component of tuning into where your child is academically and identifying potential problems and obstacles in their earliest stages. Make time to introduce yourself to your child's teacher right at the beginning of the school year, and convey your interest in helping your child succeed academically. Attend parent-teacher conferences and carefully read all correspondence from your child's teacher and school.
